HUGGS + KISSES
FOREVER

Kimmie,

Just think we have been Best Buddies now for almost 3 years. We have been through everything together + more. Remember how scared we were to begin our Freshman year here at Big NH? Now look at us. We are mature Soph's. We used to be so intimidated by the upper classmen at lunch. Remember our First REAL NH party (How could I forget, G.K.) Butterflies all the way. Another Summer here to let our brains go to waste (if you know what I mean) It's mega partying from here on out ~~and~~! The Summer gang of 03 (mar, sue, Bill, Luke) never again? yeah Right. Same time next year. ^{also} This time next year we'll have a mobile to take us around to all those parties we plan on going to, just think your car or mine? J.R. + G.K. FOREVER. I'll never forget (NEVER) Suddenly last Summer is all over, we are onto bigger + better things this summer. you won't make the same mistake twice. The fun times we've had, can never be replaced. Always Remember that BABES ^{ALWAYS} = LOLA ^{FOREVER} = LOLA ^{FOREVER}

Kimmy!
 Ved. I'm stoked
 this damn year is over! This summer

"STRIVING . . ."

"The most important thing in the Olympic Games is not the winning but taking part. The essential thing in life is not conquering but fighting well."

This statement by Baron de Coubertin, founder of the modern Olympic Games, described the spirit involved in each Olympiad. It stresses the need for fair and just competition, while striving for the peak of athletic prowess, speed and strength. At Newport Harbor student athletes volunteer hours of practice and preparation for upcoming sports events. It is a grueling task to tone the muscles into perfection and coordinate agility and gracefulness of motion. The athletes at Newport Harbor have captured the sense of strength and pride in their athletic capabilities. As idealized by the creed of the modern Olympics "the most important thing . . . is the taking part . . ."

HOMECOMING COURT

Candidates for this year's Homecoming Court were Tiffani Whitaker, Deanna Collins, Megan Fingler, Linda Dalton, Colleen Deemer, Lynn Murray.

During Harbor's Homecoming football battle with Escanaba, a parade of classical cars circled the field with the princesses in glamorous display as they delivered the nominees to their improvised court on the field. As the girls strolled onto the grass, the Harbor Band softly played in the background in formal salute. The winning ballot determining the senior queen was delivered by a floating parachutist dressed in a black tuxedo who fell through the air and gracefully landed in the playing field with envelope in hand. As the ballot was opened, a hush of intense silence swept through the crowd. Suddenly, the speaker proudly announced the winner.

HOMECOMING

An Evening of Pageantry . . .

It was a pretty confrontation between Estancia's Eagles and the Newport Harbor Tars. Newport fans suited out to pose and cheer their team's victory. Cheers and song leaders encouraged the crowd into yell rallies and then started "O claps." The Sailer Band paraded in pomp and pageantry, playing and adding the sweet taste of victory. The poignant scent of triumph pervaded the cold night air. Newport Harbor's football team made a fast and clean exit early in the evening and continued to relentlessly drill the Eagles into the ground for the remainder of the game. Final score: Newport Harbor 52, Estancia 0.

Tars dive through Estancia's territory. An ominous warning for the Eagles. Tommy Tar yearns for the #1 title.

Sam, the Olympic Eagle

In accordance with tradition, every country may choose its own mascot. Sam, the Olympic Eagle, is our nation's mascot for the twenty-third Olympic Games. Giving a striking appearance to our patriotic Uncle Sam, whose rigid grimace demands individual participation in governmental affairs, Sam is the nation's "feathered friend" whose buoyant personality seeks to inspire our country's athletes to golden victory. Symbolically, Sam stems from the internationally known bald eagle whose strength graphically reflects the ideals cited in the Olympic motto: "higher, stronger, faster."

Olympic Site Map

This summer, Southern California will be alive with excitement in anticipation of the XXIII Summer Olympic games. The events will be held all over Southern California. Consequently, the summer of 1984 will provide fans of all sports with something to look forward to, and to remember for years to come.

THE ANCIENT GAMES

The origin of the Olympic Games is shrouded in the mystery of the period when myth and legend were inextricably entangled with the beginnings of Hellenic history. One story, told by Pindar, traces the origin of the games back to that legendary time when Hercules, doing penance for his misdeeds, was given the unpleasant task of cleaning, in a single day, the stables in which Augeas, King of Elis, maintained herds. Hercules wheedled from the King the promise of one tenth of his coveted herds should he be successful in his task, and promptly turned the rivers Alpheus and Peneus from their courses to flow through the stables. Augeas refused to pay Hercules his reward and with ready justice, Hercules slew Augeas, adopted his herds, and instituted the Olympic games in celebration.

For nearly twelve hundred years despite threats of invasion and the interminable squabbles that culminated in the Peloponnesian War and finally the loss of Greek independence, the Olympic games were held every four years without interruption. At their height, the games were the embodiment of all that made Greece the mistress of the Mediterranean. The simple religious festival in which they had their beginnings developed into a seven-day carnival of culture and athletic prowess with all the color and pageantry of those classic days.

THE MODERN GAMES

Opening ceremonies

Baron de Coubertin

Young Pierre de Coubertin was convinced that the way to a better individual humanity lay along the rugged pathway of exposure to competitive modern life. His ambition was to get the youth of the world together, preferably in the friendly competition of sport. The Baron was disturbed by an international trend toward commercialism in sports, and he gradually began to dream of a cure — a revival of the ancient Greek Olympic Games.

In 1893, the Baron invited sportsmen from all over the world to join l'Union des Sports Athletiques in an international athletic congress at Sorbonne. Few countries responded favorably at first to Baron de Coubertin's invitation, and he feared the international congress might be a fiasco. But he kept prodding and pleading, and when the congress opened on June 16, 1894, delegates were present from the United States, England, Sweden, Spain, Italy, Belgium, Russia, Greece, and France. Stressing the development of youth fitness and the development of international understanding, the Baron convinced even the most skeptical delegates. Unanimously, the international congress voted to revive the Olympic Games. Swayed by history and the arguments of the Greek delegation, the congress chose Athens as the site of the first modern Olympic Game to be held in the year 1896.

William May Garland, a native of Maine who made his fortune in West Coast real estate at the turn of the century became president of the California Chamber of Commerce. Despite the economic depression that had swept across the country and the lack of money in many nations to send athletes to the far coast of America, William Garland stubbornly insisted on the games taking place in Los Angeles and became head of the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee. The state voted towards a million dollars to help with expenses and Los Angeles floated a 1.5 million city bond. When the participating athletes from 37 nations reached the coast they were greeted by excellent facilities. They included the Los Angeles Coliseum which was enlarged and renamed Olympic Stadium, with seating for over 100,000 spectators and a revolutionary new track made of crushed pear, an auditorium with 10,000 spectator seats for boxing and wrestling events, a swimming arena with a capacity of 12,000; tennis courts, a rifle range, a bowling green, and a rowing course with seating for 17,000 viewers. The biggest provision was the Olympic Village, which had 550 cottages and other buildings laid out spaciouly overlooking the Pacific Ocean. Mildred Didrickson, an 18-year-old from Beaumont, Texas, became known as 'Babe' because of her hitting style that resembled that of Babe Ruth. 'Babe' was limited in the Los Angeles Olympics games to three track and field events. In the javelin throw and the 80-meter hurdles, she took the gold medals. Didrickson broke records in three of the events she participated in. Lillian Copeland, in the discus throw, Mary Carew, Evelyn Furtsch, Annette Rogers and Wilhelmina Von Bremen the 400-meter relay team, won gold medals for the United States. In the men's 1932 Olympics, Lekanen of Finland made a scrape of a victory over our Ralph Hill in the 5000 meter run. A question of blocking was involved, and as a sign of sportsmanship Finland's gold medalist tried to pull our silver medalist, Ralph Hill, up to the victory stand at the side of him. Chuck Tolan won the 100 meters. Bill Carr of Pennsylvania got the gold in the 400-meter run. Thomas Hampson pulled in front of Canada's Wilson in the 800-meter to claim the gold. Frank Wykoff made a world record in the 400-meter relay. Two men, Cornelius Johnson and Robert Van Ordely of the United States, participated in a 4-way tie. In the long jump, U.S. jumpers Edward Gordon and Charles Lambert Redd took the gold and silver medals home. The Americans won the discus throw. John Anderson, Henri Jean Laborde, gold and silver. 80,000 watched William Miller of the U.S. get the gold in close competition with Japan's Shuhei Nishida. The American team to take a first in swimming was Clarence Buster Crabbe, who set a record in the 100-meter freestyle. American women won four of the swimming events. The United States Diving team made a clean sweep. Dorothy Poynton won the gold medal in the high dive. The United States came in third in water polo. Hungary placed first. The United States won the Bantam weight wrestling (Robert Pearce), welterweight (Jack Van Bebber) and the light heavy weight (Peter Mehner) golds. For the first time, in 1932, the United States got a fencing medal. In rowing we won the double sculls, coxed pairs, and fours. Star class yachting was a new event in 1932 which the United States won. We also won 1000 meter yachting. In the 1932 Olympics, the United States won 44 Gold medals, 36 Silver and 30 Bronze medals. In second place, Italy won 1 Gold, 12 silver and 12 Bronze. France came in third.

XIV Winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia

Tamara McKinney taking a "quick" run

Peter and Kitty Carruthers clowning around

This year, the XIV Winter Olympics were held in the small mountain town of Sarajevo, Yugoslavia. Sarajevo, though perhaps unknown to most Americans, is famous for its part in being the scene for the assassination of The Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian empire. It is this violent incident of 1914 that put Europe on the road to World War I.

Now, however, this town is peaceful and has the idyllic setting for the competition in winter sports. Here were located all the courses necessary to put on successful ski, luge, and bobsled runs. Also, there were the new 70 and 90 meter jumps on Mount Ingman, and a 15-km cross-country course. On Mount Bjelasnica, usually used as a weather station, is where the downhill, slalom, and giant slalom races were held, their starting point the inside of a newly constructed restaurant.

Despite weather problems — beginning with lack of snow and ending with too much snow and high winds — the XIV Winter Olympics enjoyed a smooth run. Opening ceremonies were performed in the just completed Zetra complex where young Yugoslavians formed intricate and colorful shapes while dancing complex native dances. After the ceremonies, the first events, skating, began in a new indoor skating arena. Downhill and both the slalom and giant slalom skiing followed after frequent delays. At the same time as the skiing the luge and bobsled runs were completed.

Even though we did not sweep these XIV Winter Olympics of its medals, we did leave a good sized dent and showed that we were indeed excelling, at last, in winter sports. Among all of our superb athletes, a few deserve special mention. Bill Johnson, a dark horse from Southern California took a gold in the men's downhill skiing, while Phil and Steve Mahre took a gold and silver on the men's giant slalom. Scott Hamilton from Colorado received a gold medal for men's figure skating. In women's events, Rosalyn Sumners clinched the silver for her excellent performance in women's figure skating and Tamara McKinney tried her best, but did not get a medal.

HERE WE GO AGAIN!

Even after four years, it comes back in a sweep. All it takes is one glance of a hockey shirt with U.S.A. planted on the front, and suddenly the scene re-erupts in the mind: sticks waved like flags, teammates hugging, a crowd in sweet tears. Odd for a summer-time nation that the Winter Olympics provided such a memorable moment in sports, so memorable that half of us still swear that we beat the Russians, not the Finns, in the finals. But winter plays tricks with the senses. If we didn't know better, it would appear that those people are actually traveling on their sides in a bobsled at 73 m.p.h., and sailing off a 90-meter platform on skis, poised in the air like flying hinges, and plunging furiously down a mountain, making erratic Zs among poles stuck in the snow.

Within hours of the opening ceremonies, one will be saying such words as "biathlon" again, and talking of Nordic skiing and the huge. A foreign languages for Americans, who in a sense return to the Old World on these occasions, or a dream version of that world, to European movie kingdoms where athletes really do come from Liechtenstein. For 1984: Sarajevo. (Henceforth no schoolchild will be stumped on that World War I question.) Not our neck of the woods exactly. Yet Americans will be neither out of place nor outclassed this year, even if we will not see Eric Heiden wearing his five gold medals like a Titan's necklace, or pumping his arms in the golden suit that appeared welded to his body. Not that his outfit was wilder than anyone else's in this ice capade goggle-eyed skiers in interplanetary helmets, figure skaters sprayed with sequins spinning in electric blues, the brash colors seeming to make a protest against the frozen season.

Which may account for a basic appeal of these sports: their headlong assault on the weather. Or maybe it is the controlled craziness of the events. On surfaces difficult enough to walk on upright, do these people race, leap, whirl, swerve, and then add an extra un-natural measure of defiance by going airborne. Fanatics. Only a spill proves them mortal. So reckless in their attitude that, watching them, one barely believes in the danger. Then someone's momentum is shattered, and a kid lies piled up in his skis like a broken bird. Silence replaces wonder.

Or then again, it may be the silence that holds us in the first place, and not the speed. Skaters whoosing slightly, skis barely cracking the snow's shell. Take away the crowds from these Olympics, and there would be very little to hear but your own heart racing. Until the closing ceremonies, when nations who first entered the stadium as if parading before the galaxy, block by formal block, break ranks, and the competitors, chanting raucously off-key, embrace one another in the most disorderly conduct. Pure mush, of course. Clichés down the line. So why are you smiling?

TOMA

On March 6, 1984 I crammed into the Boys Gym where Thousands of fellow students were jammed onto the floor below me packing the bleachers to my right and left, and struggling for space to sit in the balcony above. Silence echoed through the gym on this macabre occasion. Three of my contemporaries had just been carried out of the stands as if they were sacks of grain — fainting from this encounter. Down in front of me there was only one man, standing calmly relating nauseous stories that seeped into my soul and found expression in the shape of droplets of tears along my cheek. The man's name was David Toma, an ex New Jersey cop, and his stories were true and factual, accounts of drug and alcohol abusers. He came to Newport Harbor to lecture and enlighten the students on the effects of drugs and alcohol — specifically on teenage users. His words struck home and traumatized his audience. Mr. Toma dropped a ticking bomb, ready for detonation into our student body. His accounts of drug users and pushers were horrifying. One day the user would be grand, feeling fine and getting high, the following day the user would be either dead or locked behind cold steel bars, so incoherent that he would senselessly pull his eyeballs from their sockets in a fit of drug-inspired madness. There were stories about the students who have been users since the third grade, some since three years of age, when their mothers started them on their habit. There was a true account related about teenagers who, having a good time, drinking a few beers, decided to go for a drive. With eleven kids jammed into one vehicle, the drunken driver played chicken with a locomotive, and nine out of the eleven kids were decapitated. Mr. Toma explained that these were the cut and dried, bare-bone effects of drugs and alcohol on the user. Drugs and alcohol are poisons which give a sensation of euphoria. But to introduce these poisons into the system is to toy with death and lasting side effects. As a whole the student body crawled out of the gym, stunned, horrified, and bleakly confronting a frightening reality.

I have been thinking about you a lot lately and wondering how you are getting on.
 I hope you are well and happy.
 I am still working hard at my job,
 but I always find time to relax.
 I would love to hear from you soon.
 Give my love to your family.

Mr. Johnson assists some students with their projects

It takes talented hands to make those pots

Mr. Johnson gets his laugh of the day

Mr. Moehler looking over the progress

For all those creative people hiding in the halls of Newport Harbor there is the art department, where students can develop their talents in a variety of courses including ceramics, art, and printmaking. Students are encouraged to experiment with different art forms and mediums.

Mr. Fred Peterson shows Heather Hoffman how to "balance a ledger" in accounting class.

The Business Department at Newport Harbor High School consists of five teachers, and offers fifteen different courses of instruction. Department head, Fred Peterson, teaches four levels of Accounting, Business and Consumer Law, Recordkeeping, and typing. Sharon East teaches four levels of typing, Office Training, Business Office Occupation, and monitors the Office Assistant Program. Joe Fox and Charles Douglas both teach beginning typing classes, and Mimi Birch teaches Work Experience Education.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Typing students "at work" while Ms. East observes their efforts.

Lindsay Alstrom lets her fingers do the walking.

ENGLISH

Mr. Lander teaches about I Chou vs. I-It

Mr. (Uncle) Wakeman smiles his biggest grin for the camera

English!!! A word that strikes fear in the heart of freshmen and seniors alike. How can anyone forget their freshman year with Mrs. Cunningham and her kitty-kitty gum-gum? Or how about those lucky souls who had Mr. Kuhta? By now, they've probably seen every poster ever published in Surf magazine. Fortunately, Mr. Tagami was here in your sophomore year to help make English less of a dirty word. But Mrs. Orbach then showed up with a "decade" of Thoreau. And right when you thought that everything was downhill, up jumped Mr. Lander with his "existentialism" and Notre Dame football scores. But thanks to all their help, we can now at least communicate half-way decently.

Mr. Tagami: Department of English, Essay Writer

Mr. Smith teaches German to Newport's German class

Mrs. Porter takes her class out to bask in the sunlight on a warm day

Mrs. Hodges helps a AP student with a difficult assignment

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Languages such as Spanish, Latin, French, German and newcomer Chinese are taught by Newport's language department. As well as the standard teaching techniques, Newport's language department uses a language lab to give the students a better understanding of language. Through the teachings of this department, students are able to experience the languages of many different peoples.

HOME ECONOMICS

Steve Brown & Mrs. Block - M. Casserole actually got an A

Jason Olson, Susie Pyle & Sean Parkman "Oh c'mon Sue, I know this is right"

Gina Romano "Smile and say, Cheese"

How come we're cleaning & they're eating?

The Home Economics courses provided at Newport Harbor are designed with hopes of making young adults capable of surviving in the real world. With the basic skills taught by Mrs. Barbara Block and Mrs. Wanda Olsen, the big step could become considerably less ominous. The courses within the Home Economics Department include Foods, Clothing, and Exploring Childhood.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Drafting teacher Mr. McLaughlin shows a student how to use drafting machines.

Mr. Vanderlan helps students with a speaker in power mechanics.

Mr. Vanderlan, photography teacher poses for a student.

Photography, Drafting, Power Mechanics, Wood Shop and Metal shop make up Newport's Industrial Arts Department. These classes are designed to help prepare students with many of the skills needed for a future job in the industrial world. Many of the skills learned in these classes will be employed in practical home repair and photographic self expression.

This program is designed to help students with specific learning difficulties. The class sizes are small and the students receive individual tutoring. Very often a good start in this program leads to successful high school career

RESOURCE SPECIALIST PROGRAM

MATHEMATICS

Mr. Nye, teacher, with students.

Mr. Chapman, teacher, with students.

Mr. Gritsch, teacher, with students working on a problem.

From practical math to calculus, from the students taking math because it's required, to the future mathematicians, Newport's math department offers all students one thing, a great education

MULTI-MEDIA CENTER

Mr. John McGinnis is the librarian at Newport Harbor. He is a fifteen year veteran of the Harbor staff. The first 12 years of his career were spent as an English teacher, and the most recent 3 have been fulfilled with the position of librarian. Mr. McGinnis and his assistant, Jacque Kuder, have worked hard to bring our library up-to-date with the newest books and reference materials. They really enjoy working with the kids, and for this we thank them.

Just another day at work.

A very sensitive situation.

Mr. McGinnis preparing a table.

Jacque Kuder answers another question.

Jenny Gray "Eureka."

PERFORMING ARTS

Mr. Joe Swift instructs his drama students in the production of a show.

Bill Wolf and the choir perform at Newport's X-mas concert.

Newport's Performing Arts Department consists of numerous classes in the study of visual art. These classes range from acting, singing and performing in a band. Each one of these classes give the talented students at Harbor a chance to express themselves. The various classes are highlighted throughout the school year.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical education: cold mornings in shorts smelly lockers and sweat, the three things that make up the P.E. Department. Who could ever forget the rainy days in the gym playing kill ball or instead of volleyball playing jungle ball? The only thing that got most of us through P.E. was the assurance that it was only required for two years

The trials and tribulations of a student experiencing physical fitness testing

I don't believe it. The bird swallowed the whole thing!

The troops assemble for early morning roll call

Mr. Duffy holding baby and Mr. Spangler

Health education is an eye-opening class required by all students. This class is very informative towards learning about personal hygiene and proper social behavior in a society. Safety-Ed is also a required class which enables students to learn the ways and rules of the road. In order to obtain a drivers license, students must complete this course

SAFETY AND HEALTH ED.

Mr. Spangler reading the grades of the last test

Mr. Duffy explaining the internal anatomy of a car to Toni Breadmont Carl Arthur and Tristen Parker

Officer Bob says, "Ugh" to drugs, and "Nope" to dope

SCIENCE

Mr. Winters talking to students in his classroom.

Mr. Smith in his science classroom.

Bug collections, pocket calculators, luck and a lot of intense learning are integral parts of Newport's Science Department. From Biology to Physics, students are able to mix the thrill of learning with the excitement of note taking.

Mr. Llewellyn, Geography teacher

Mr. Buerger, Social Science teacher

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Mr. Fabian Groux, department head

It's Anthropology. Can you dig it???

History is an account, mostly false, of events mostly unimportant, which are brought about by rulers, mostly knaves, and taught by teachers, mostly well informed," . . . Ambrose Bierce. But seriously, Newport's Social Science department consists of various classes designed to expand the mind of uninformed students and to expand the minds of others

YOSEMITE INSTITUTE

New view of the Cross Country Skiing

The famous rock El Capitan

Chris MacDonald, Kim McLaughlin, Keri O'Hern, Hope Irwin and Veronica Carter

Never before has anyone experienced as phenomenal a sight as Yosemite Valley. From the overflowing waterfalls to the steep, jagged rocks Yosemite is the place to enjoy the wilderness.

The Yosemite Group had a wonderful time exploring the nature of the valley. Climbing up 2000 feet to the top of Yosemite Falls was tough, but after seeing the view all the rough hiking was forgotten. It snowed the last day of the trip, and looked like a picture postcard. Cross-Country skiing topped off the trip. The members will never forget the unreal time they had at Yosemite Valley.

Yosemite Institute Members were Hope Irwin, Keri O'Hern, Chris MacDonald, Kim McLaughlin, Lori Thueser, Jennifer R., AFN students Mikael, Atalie, Veronica, Andrea and AFN students Keri O'Hern.

AMERICAN FI

The American Field Service club is a group of special people who want to bring the world a little closer. A.F.S. brings students from over 50 countries to the United States and sends American students abroad. The student club promotes world understanding and friendship and helps the foreign students adapt to life in Southern California.

Our club's foreign students are outgoing, curious about American life, and always fun to be around. We hope that each member of the student club comes to know the foreign students each year; friendships with these fine young people will be remembered and treasured for life.

ELD SERVICE

Atalay Bugong I — Turkey

I have lived my best year of my life here. When I first heard of AFS in my high school in Turkey, I wanted to be an AFS student very much. I tried to fulfill that dream for three years and succeeded at last. Finally I am here. Now I am an "AFS'er." That is fantastic. I have made friends from all over the world and learned many things about them and their countries. If you want to be an AFS student and have the opportunity, DO IT!

I love Newport Beach. The weather, the beach, and my friends are all wonderful here. My two wonderful families are the Saddingtons and the Parklinses. They have helped me very much and have shared my every moment. I cannot thank them enough, I love them very much. Thank you SBJM. Thank you all my teachers. Thank you all of my friends. And thank you everyone for this unforgettable year.

Veronica Carter — United Kingdom

This will be the one and only time I get to write in a yearbook, we do not have them in the United Kingdom, so I had better write something profound!

My year in Newport Beach will probably be one of the better years of my life, and I owe it all to the family with whom I lived, the Shriners. They opened their home to me and the friends I have made here who have made the difference between me having a difficult year in Newport Beach and me being able to remember it as a place where I had a good time.

One of the best things about A.F.S. is that it shows that despite our cultural differences, people all over the world are basically the same, and I am glad I could be a part of it.

There. I hope that was profound enough for you! Thanks to everyone for everything, and the best of British luck to all in the future.

BRINGS THE W

Mikael Lidfors — Sweden

When I left Sweden in August, I did not really think that I was going to be without my family and friends for a whole year. Maybe it was because I did not have to worry about it. I had a new family that was waiting to take care of me, the Lawsons.

It is hard to come to a different country with different customs and people, but after I grew accustomed to the way of life in Newport Beach, I began to feel more comfortable. My decision to come to the United States as an exchange student was made up much because I wanted to learn a second language, meet many new people, and see something different from my little town in the middle of Sweden. All this and many other dreams have been fulfilled this year which makes this the most interesting year of my life.

Editor's note: Mikael is not an APS student, but he is a foreign exchange student and a member of the APS club. He also participated in the APS activities. For that reason he was included in this APS section.

Andrea Salvi — Italy

When my friend David Sholkoff asked me to write something about my experiences in Newport Beach, I was really glad to have this opportunity to express all my appreciation for coming here.

At first, I would like to speak about my family. I am sure that they are the best that I could have had. My mother is one of the best cooks that I have ever met, an exciting woman, and always full of new ideas and things to do. I cannot be bored with her. My father, Jim, was a famous football player and has taught me how to play. He is really "cool." Cassi and Sean are truly my sister and brother. We treat each other as if we are really sister and brother. I feel like I am a member of the family. We have done many wonderful things together: learning and having fun. I will never forget any of them.

I also have had lots of fun with my friends, so much so that if I wrote about all of them, I would need a book! I did not expect to find such nice people, always ready to help and give me a hand. In a short time I will go back to Italy; I am very sad to leave all these beautiful things that I have found in this mythic land called "California." I will have the memory of this wonderful experience forever, hoping that I have left something of myself with you.

4. Darlene Cambell, Juliet, and Hillary Nblo in the country of Germany. Hillary is a Harbor student whose A.F.S. trip led her to meet and see the wonders of Europe.

Coming from Stockholm, the capital city of Sweden, Newport Beach turned out to be a city that suited me well. Coming from a background where I enjoyed sailing, I fitted in very well in the NH sailing club.

One of the nicer changes in coming to CA, was the weather. It's nice to have summer 12 months of the year, but I do miss the snow of a winter in Stockholm.

I'm here with the American Scandinavian Student Exchange and I've been living with the Berk family in Newport Beach since August.

Though I've been learning English for 7 years, it took me a while to become confident, especially as you guys don't speak it either. I always thought a speed bump was a sleeping policeman and a freeway was a motorway. You can't spell Harbour properly either.

This year has given me the chance to do a lot of new things, meet a lot of new people, and experience a new way of life. I am grateful to everyone who made it possible for me.

A.S.B. LEADS

Student Government began its session at Leadership Camp during the summer. They learned through the interaction of other leaders from all over the state. They saw sensational dorm windows. The Homecoming Dance and halftime show were successful, as well as the food drive, Charity week, and representation at CASC. Mr. Nunan, the new activities director helped the students with his support and patience during busy and hectic times. This year's class leaders helped raise school spirit in functions such as the Soph class breakfast, the Senior Tea, and at "day before school started" party.

BANDS '84 EN

Silence pervades the stadium. Quickly soft-steps trample the earth in synchronized rhythm. Flashes of light glance off wavering trumpets and trombones as they are placed to the lips. They stand in rigid formations, drums strapped to the chest, and flutes tipped horizontally in salute, french horns looped over bodies in a snail-like shell. Short piercing whistle of the drum major and the slight lift of the hand signals the musicians to perform in perfect tone, rhythm, and syncopation.

The song gently unfolds as the band marches on in stiff rigid steps. Matt Hawley is the sergeant of arms, drum major, and the uniting force of the Sailor Band. Directed by Ken Owen, the band performs glorious orchestra classics, twirling and jazzing tunes of the Charleston era, and popular hits of 1984.

CHINESE CLUB

The Chinese Club, in its second year at Harbor, is proud that it is one of only two clubs of its kind in southern California. The club is open to anyone interested in learning about the Chinese culture. Several exciting activities occur during the year including a trip to San Francisco's China Town, Dinner outing to prominent Chinese restaurants, fund raising events, and lots of fun times working together.

A new program started at Harbor this year, in fact, it is the first in the whole district. Group W Cable company has started a inner-district cable news program. The show is called Class TV. This show informs students in the entire district what is going on at their school. Aside from the regular news portion of the show there are personal interviews and regular feature presentations. Some of the personalities include Wendy Barto, Bob Hassey, Dave Toma, and Kevin Wilkes. Features were done on break dancing, pro surfing, and many more interesting things. Under the advisement of Mr. Nunan, Mr. Robinson, and Mr. Swift, the news ran very smoothly.

Student producer for Harbor was Nancy Baum who worked very hard to put Harbor's portion of the show together. The rest of the news team includes: Denise Root, Leslie Jones, Nancy Baum, Greg Schwank, Sean Ward, With Alternates Wendy Barto, Lisa Kaenal, Eric Oberg, Rob Glem, and Melissa Windsor.

Ingrid, deep in thought

WE FLY THE BLUE COMMANDER S

The clouds flow by , on endless stream
Until the rain's no more a dream
Of darkness, wet and heavy still
And out fall thoughts the clouds did fill

The way is easy for us now
The wind, our host, does still allow
As through the singing sky we sail
Our wings to spread through the dark trail

The bolts of lightning cause our day
We add our shouts, "Make way, make way!"
Its thunder is our clarion cry
"The Blue commander's ship is nigh!"

On comes the galleon, silent, grand,
Its sails spread all through the land,
And certain people stop and stare
As fragile beauty gilds the air

The Blue Commander stirs the earth
With still a blessed touch of mirth
And all who see and wish to try
May spread their wings and with us fly

FRENCH CLUB

Vive La France!!! France, the wonderful country of fattening but delectable, breads, cheeses wines, and pastries. It is the home of the exotic French and their romantic accent. At Newport Harbor there is a club that delves into these and other aspects of the French culture and language. What is this group called? Naturally, the "French Club." You have probably seen the members infiltrating your classes with See's suckers and heard them speaking that weird language of four confusing accent marks and fifteen verb tenses. However, they do more than lighten your pocketbook. Among their other activities are going to French movies and restaurants and discussing important events in France, such as food and fashion trends. All of this improves their fluency in the language. To all future French club members: Bonne Chance from 1981

Advisor Mr. Gentile

GERMAN

Once again this year as in the past the German club is responsible for adding most of the student body, and half the administrators, to those cute little Gummy bears.

That's not all they do however. With all that hard earned money they have taken field trips to places like Alpine Village, and have even gone to a few movies. (Das Boot?)

Much of their remaining funds are given in the form of gift certificates to members who have made outstanding efforts in the promotion and sales of Gummy bears.

GALLEON . . . GALLEON . . . GALLEON

The yearbook writers have a job which must be taken with a sense of humor, a grain of salt, and patience for your fellow man. At the beginning of the school year everyone is happy, enthusiastic and willing to work. By December, a slight irritability seems to creep into the staff room, and procrastination develops. Before the last deadline in the middle of March a complete metamorphosis has taken place

Editor: "Are we going to make this deadline and have the yearbooks arrive before school's out — possibly saving our lives from a malicious student body?"

Staffer: "Grr!"

Editor: "Seriously, will your pages be turned in on time proofed and ready for print?"

Staffer: "GRR!"

Editor: "But it's the least you can do for your grey-haired old Editor!"

Staffer: "GRR! GRR! GRR!"

Suddenly and inexplicably yearbook staffers suffer epileptic seizures, and on March 15 an overall metamorphosis turns them into "The Living Dead". This is not an uncommon occurrence among yearbook people during the month of March (For that matter, neither is the lynching of editors!) They stumble around, eyes half closed with lack of sleep, sporting big black circles and grizzled visages, with tassled and knotted hair and grease smudges on their fingers. Fear is a perceptible quality found within the staff room's trembling composure . . . fear of failure fear of the student body

But this year's staff has worked diligently and patiently on all aspects of your 1984 edition of the Galleon. We are delighted and extremely proud to share our production with the graduating class of 1984. We dedicate this book to you, to our years together, and to all your achievements in the future

GIRLS' LEAGUE

GIRLS' JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN

Girls' League represents all the girls on campus. There are approximately forty girls this year. Every Wednesday at lunch they meet to plan such events as the sucker sale, flower sale, and parties. They also plan the "girl ask guy" winter formal. A new project this year is the "Girl of the Month." Whoever has done the most service for Girls' League and would best represent the club is elected. The girl's photograph is displayed prominently in Beek Hall. Every month the girl is elected from a different class and no officers can be elected to keep it fair. There has been great response. Especially from the younger girls to this new idea. This year's officers are Merrilee Campbell — President, Katie Wagenseller — Vice President, Traci Marinovich — Secretary, and Sharon Cothar — Treasurer. Mrs. Sadler is the advisor.

KEY CLUB SERVES

Here at Newport, the KEY CLUB is a unique service organization sponsored by a local Kiwanis Club. This uniqueness stems out from each member's interest in helping the community. During the year the club not only provides the school with many services, but it goes beyond, into the community as well. It undertakes various projects for the benefit of several local charities. Key Club provides a chance for today's youth to constructively build a better community.

The SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB has major responsibilities each year. These include the annual Christmas Toy Drive which this year, netted over 500 toys for 400 needy Children chosen by the Headstart Organization. Harbor's Social Science Club was also in charge of the annual blood drive, co-sponsored with the Red Cross. Even though the drive occurred during a heavy flu season, 135 students and 6 teachers donated 103 pints. Both the Red Cross and Headstart commended our club for superior achievement. The club's advisor, Mr. Andy Smith, did a superb job this year.

SPEECH TEAM

This year's speech team was quite successful. Harbor's two time national champions, Wendy Barto, took first place in nearly all her competitions in dramatic interpretation. Mr Joe Swift, the club's advisor, helped every member to achieve their highest potential in speech. Two great freshmen were Melissa Bradshaw and Kim Hoskins. They went Varsity after only a few competitions. Other outstanding team members were Nancy Baum, Melissa Windsor, Denise Root, and Greg Schwank. Speech is a very competitive school activity, all of the team did an outstanding job thanks to our president, Denise Root, and advisor Mr Swift.

THESPIANS

The Thespian society is a theatre group dedicated to the live stage. Thespian members consist of thousands of drama enthusiasts spanning the country. At the beginning to the '83-84 school year the music department started with a new choir instructor. It was a transition that was hard for some students to make, but under the attention of Bill Wolf the choir pulled together.

Then, at the semester, the students were once again called upon to pull together. Steve Whight was introduced to a wary classroom.

Since then, Steve has taken the recently orphaned choir under his wing. They're singing again, it's good to hear.

4th place 1983 National Champions Erik Hauser, Matt Paskerian, and Brian Hemley would have won the 1983 Cotton Bowl, in Texas, except it was canceled because the lake was frozen over.

We expect the Varsity team of Erik Hauser, Matt Paskerian, Steve Mader, Dave Blackman and Todd Russell to do very well in the National Championships this spring at the Naval Academy in Annapolis.

Erik Hauser demonstrates some of the sailing techniques he uses to win regattas.

EVENTS

THE

This year's 25th Olympiad has instilled all sections of the world with electrifying spirit, unswerving good-will and the encompassing thrill of competition. Newport Harbor echoes the spirit and ideals of the Olympic games. Harbor's athletes bond together for a powerful foundation that spans the individual toward greater heights and achievements. Not only do our athletes possess physical prowess and highly tuned skills, they also exhibit an overwhelming zeal to achieve. All of the joy and thrill of American competition is illustrated in the following pages.

CHEER AND SONG

VARSITY: Kathy Grundy, Merilee Campbell, Gretchen Sperry, Michelle Stearns, Allison Lee, Shana Berry

This year's Varsity Cheer was indeed unique. Michelle's electric eyes always kept the crowd enthusiastic, and Allison when not falling off pyramids, was very good at organizing the group. Merilee and Gretchen led a victorious NH in the famous shaving cream fight at camp. Shana's Michael Jackson was also conniving. Kathy Grundy was best known for giving the squad something to laugh about. Thanks Newport, for making their senior year the best! They'll never forget it!

Lynn and Michelle exhibit their "Close-up" smiles.
Wake up, ladies. It's Homecoming.

SONGLEADERS: Kate Wagoner et al. (L to R) Lynn Murray, Jenny Ross, Pam Donta, Nore R., etc. (C) Sue Myers, Mar Jo Verter, etc. (R) Kate

The 1983-1984 songleaders were a very special group. All time loved to dance and it showed. Though they had a lot of fun, they worked hard too! For example, a typical practice went like this: Marjo arrives 30 minutes early and after waiting for everyone to arrive, she announces "Everyone's here... but where's Betty?" 25 minutes later Betty arrives, and Jeryl finishes the details of her last dance. Commander Katie yells "Let's count it out without the music a couple 100 times." "Ready?" Lynn reports "Whatever. Just tell me what to do." After half an hour, Lynn suddenly has an emotional breakdown, and Pam sympathizes with her. Susan suggests they get back to work. 20 minutes after this, the routine is complete and all are satisfied. Then Gina speaks up: "Ya know, guys... I think the routine would look better like this."

Frustrating? Maybe... but it was worth it!

Songleaders dance to a special beat.
Hey, Jeryl, Lynn, and Marjo, is this a new routine?

CHEER

This year's JV and Fresh-Soph cheerleaders were extremely active. They could be found at all underclass games from football to basketball to water polo. These faithful cheerleaders tried to give their support evenly to all teams. They appeared at all the games, whether rain or shine, and spread Harbor spirit. Although the year was busier than any of them had anticipated, each one of them loved the excitement involved. They were really dedicated, and each is hoping to be chosen for next year's squad so she can continue to help boost Harbor's pride in its athletes.

Although most people probably never saw the Auxiliary perform, they did see them have one of the blue and white shows on the field during football half-time shows. That was the Tall Flag and L.D. Squad, the two groups that comprise NH's Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary is a successful performing group. Besides the half-time shows they compete in parades acrossing the band. Among the many awards received, the Tall Flag squad won 3rd place trophy for their excellent performance in the Christmas Parade. The L.D. squad marches proudly in front of the band carrying the Newport banner.

The Auxiliary owes much of its success to their devoted advisor Jennifer "mommy" Adams.

BOYS' BASEBALL

The baseball team playing for Harbor High school this year has many talented players that give it the potential to do very well this year. In their first game this season the varsity team beat Huntington Beach High School 2-1. Hopefully this game was setting a precedent of things to come. On the varsity team Joe Holden is catcher, Jon Dixon is a pitcher, and Jerry Paskowski is prized for his ability to play the positions of pitcher and second baseman. Coaching the varsity team is the bearded Wayne Heck. Mike Murphy is the JV's team coach, and Dwayne Myers is the Fresh-Soph. With relatively strong JV and Fresh-Soph teams baseball will be a sure hit.

Dave Felde, Joe Holden, Todd Bushman

Seniors Todd Bushman, Joe Holden, and Coach Jerry Debusk led Harbor's Varsity Basketball team. This year they finished with a 14-10 record overall and a 8-6 league record. Their final game, against crosstown rival Corona del Mar, ended with a close score of 54-56 in overtime. Harbor finished in fourth place overall in the Sea View League as a result of their loss to CdM.

Cross Country finished the season very successfully. Under head coach Jim Newkirk, Newport's Varsity squad made the CIF Finals and finished in fifth place overall.

They closed out their regular season with a 7-1 record. According to Coach Newkirk, "Senior Tom Walters was the key to the outstanding success of the team this year." Newkirk also added that "Tom is the most devoted runner possibly in the school history, running over 1200 miles during the summer, and definitely deserves his number one ranking on the team." Everyone did very well, though, and all the hard work definitely payed off.

Sean Smith shows the pain and glory in running Cross Country season.

SENIORS ENDED AN ERA

For the ended this year. The graduating senior players who in their undefeated sophomore year, won the league title, named Mike Giddings coaching man at Newport Harbor. At that time, the class of 1984 was well aware that Giddings and his sophomore stars would continue to bring fame to Harbor, and the seniors have not been disappointed. The team "overwhelmed" their way to capture the San View League title despite injuries. Harbor kept the ball in a 7-3 win over long time rival Corona del Mar and earned CIF playoffs in tip top shape with solid favorites S. Beane and P. Hovess. First round CIF over Garden Grove, 20-0, was won with J. James running a 49 yard touchdown in the first quarter. In second round action against Valencia, Harbor lost 17-13 in the last minutes.

To mention all of the outstanding players Newport Harbor produced this season would be an impossible task since the whole team was talented.

The defensive line, was led by seniors P. Bea and B. Kanan. Quarterback B. Goodfield showed his skill on the field with R. Power on the receiving end. The field goal department was left to only one, K. Lohm, who did an outstanding job getting those extra points.

By the season's end, Harbor had eight first team All San View League choices, was fullback-passer-lineback S. Beane and two way lineman B. Kanan who were unanimously named the League's choices for back and lineman of the year. Beane was the top scorer and second in rushing yardage in the county. Ending to the top senior year will be the juniors who did exceptionally well with M. Smith, H. Thong, A. Swenson, S. Moore, R. Brown, and the intercepting hands of J. Spangler.

These last two years with coach Mike Giddings have brought spirit and respect toward him as a coach. He taught the players the meaning of both winning and losing. He brought the players close together and showed them the real meaning of "Mean and Tough, Bold and Foul."

The sophomore football team did exceptionally well this year by beating their freshmen 8-6. Records: Jon Johnson, MVP; Shane Foley, captain; and Jim Sieman, MIF, were honored.

The whole team did well this year. Notable players were B. Cupell, J. Johnson, S. Foley, A. Sheppard, and P. Howser. For the Corona game many players colored their hair and some even went as far as to cut it almost all the way off.

The coaches should be praised, and, it is obvious, that next year's varsity should be outstanding. Having many different coaches at the beginning and the special season must have been pretty strenuous on the players, but they proved their worth.

BOYS' SOCCER

Boys' Soccer

This year's Varsity team did very well. The team didn't make the CIF's, but it did beat Estancia, which did go to the finals. The coach was Mauricio Claire. Todd Russell presided as captain. Coach Claire said Steve Leffler was commendable for his goal keeping. Also on his list of outstanding were James McMahan (full back) and Dale Cross (mid-field). One of the more emotional games was the competition against Estancia in which we took a 2-1 victory. Our team triumphed over Corona Del Mar once, and the other game turned out to be a tie. The younger teams did very well this year and according to Coach Claire, "There is a good outlook for the near future." This year was rather unfortunate because a few of the players had injuries early in the season. Varsity overall won 3 and lost 6, placing 7th in the league. The JV team placed 3rd in the league, and Fresh/Soph placed a high second.

Boys' Swimming: Newport Harbor always does well in the boys' water sports. This is due to vigorous training and lots of talent. This year's Varsity team is being trained by Coach Strick. The JV Coach is Bill Barnett and the Fresh/Soph has Doug Maynard. On the Varsity team Andrew Lawson is top on the Breaststroke, Matt Tingler excels in the Butterfly, Jon Elliot expertly swims the 20-free style. VARSITY TRACK Leading Marston's Track Team in the spirit of teamwork, Marston's 1980 team is a well-balanced group, with strong distance runners, and relay. In support, senior Steve Brown, last year's MVP, also runs, does the 150 hurdles, and senior Tom Wilson, a serious distance runner, runs the 2 mile and 1 mile. Other team members include senior Bob Green, a high jumper, Jeff Redburn, and Sean Smith, another distance runner, who runs the mile and 3 mile run.

The rest of the varsity team is composed of junior Ted Spencer, relay runner, Sean Green, who runs the 1 mile and 3 mile run, and senior Steve Brown, a high jumper.

Marston's Track team is coached by Mr. Bill Tuck, Head Coach, and Bob Venable, who coach Marston's specialty under coach Bill Coleman, senior coach, Gary Smith, distance coach, David Jones, and distance sports, and Steve Hunt, who coaches the day and night distance sports.

The remainder of the fresh/soph team and J.V. teams were composed of sophomores Will Fisher, a variety high and long jumper, Wes Kruger, a high jumper, Peter Howan, a relay sprinter, Eric Klosser, a distance runner who runs the mile and two miles runs, variety discus thrower Seth Kaplan and shot and discus thrower Joe Corbo.

TRACK

The 1984 track team had a very successful season. Topping off boys' track was JoJo Dubese and Fritz Howser. The girls had Buffy Rabbit and Maggie Hansen. Coach Twiet and Coach Vansickle directed these fine athletes to many victories. Throughout most of the 1984 season the Sailors went undefeated. All of Harbor's athletes displayed sportsmanship, talent, and courage. Which adds up to a winning team.

V.B. CAN SPIKE IT TO C.I.F.

Varsity and Junior Varsity moved off with a good season this year. The team members all are very dedicated and work hard for a talented team. Varsity is expected to go to C.I.F. and do very well in league. Outstanding Seniors are Shawn Droke, John Boerwick and Brent Bradley. Junior Varsity is also expected to do well in league. Coach quotes that "the team is no doubt talented and they deserve to do well."

OUR #1 C.I.F. CHAMPS — WE'RE PROUD

The Newport Harbor Varsity Water Polo Team had a great season this year with the help of Coach Bill Barnett and the teams many great athletes. They proved that they were the best this year by winning a close game against Sunny Hills in the CIF Championships. The last year NH won CIF was 1980, but they were close in '81 and '82 with second place. It took 3 and 4 years of dedicated work and a strong goal to be the best and win the title of CIF #1 Champs, and NH is proud. CONGRATULATIONS NH POLO

JUNIOR VARSITY WATER POLO

The J.V. Water Polo Team finished off the season very well. They won every game without any problems: Estancia, 2-18; Saddleback, 4-22; El Toro, 3-17; Corona Del Mar, 1-6; University, 1-6. The team also won the Jr. Olympics this summer in Notre Dame. Jeff Sires, the J.V. coach said that the team worked very well together and they have an excellent chance of winning CIF next year. GOOD JOB, J.V. POLO!

BOYS' WRESTLING

Under the expert coaching of Brick Bailey, Newport Harbor had a very strong wrestling team this year. To show for the efforts this year, we finally beat Corona Del Mar again for the first time in at least 4 years. The Varsity score in the Corona Del Mar match was 45-21, our victory, of course. Overall the wrestling team won 8 and lost 4 matches. Jason Burnard as a freshman, won 2nd, Marty Dozie, and Vick Yeast captured two 3rd in the Sea View League. All three of these fine wrestlers competed in the CIF's. Jason Burnard, the team captain, was named MVP. Vick received an award for most improved. Following the Varsity team's lead Jim Carr took a first in the League. Cass Spence won a second.

Bradley Ralph bawling his opponent at a standing position.

BOYS' TENNIS

This year's Varsity Tennis Team is coached by Charlie Bleker who feels the team is very strong. In spite of the stiff competition in the San View League, Coach Bleker does plan to go far in the CIF race. The top player this year is Rick Conkey, he is half of the top doubles team, with the other half being his partner Kent Goeby. Fred Kerfoot is the top singles player. Ole Ringstrom and Mike Abel are next in line. Gary Bied is the Junior Varsity coach and Mike Brunetti coaches the Fresh-Soph team.

The Newport Harbor Varsity Cross Country Team had a very good season this year. This was the first year that they won league. It is predicted that next year they'll do just as well, and possibly better, and there's a very good chance that they'll get first in CIF. This year they recovered 6th place in CIF. Junior Varsity did very well also. All of the girls worked very hard and their efforts were awarded.

SPIRITED TEAM GOES TO C.I.F.

The Field Hockey Team is one of the most spirited girls' hockey teams at NHHS. They also are very talented. This year the team had a very good season and went to C.I.F. winning in the first round against Azusa. The awards went to: Wendy McKay as MVP, Julie Boers as Most Improved, Lori Metz as Most Inspirational and Tracy Felt and Tina Royce as captains. All of these girls including Brandi Whipple made 1st and 2nd team in "All League". With the help of Coach Sharon Pietrok and Assistant Coach Kitty Coon the team played very well and finished with a fun and victorious season.

GYMNASTS EXPECTED TO HAVE ONE OF THE BEST SEASONS EVER The Gymnastics team this year has two new coaches: Lois Jensen and Kevin Weaklin. All the girls have worked hard and improved very much since the beginning of the season, and have learned new tricks and routines. The whole team is expected to do outstanding this season. Varsity is expected to go to CIF and place second in League. Junior Varsity will, most probably, be undefeated, and has been first in League for the past four years. As a whole, the team is strong and their outlook for the gymnastic season is great. Coach Jensen says that the team is "easy to work with and a fun and talented group of kids."

GIRLS' SOCCER

Newport Harbor had a relatively good year in girls' soccer, placing fifth in the Sea View League. Coached by Michi Hartman, this diverse group of girls included MVP Megan Hall, cited for her dependability, freshmen Michelle Burns and Niccole Hampton, and goalie Cindy Jarvis, who played her first year of soccer. Harbor was also fortunate to have the talents of senior Kelley O'Hern, who saved a lot of goals, and Nancy Coyne and Kari Specht, the team's highest scorers.

But Hartman coached the Junior Varsity team, with the help of Barbara Mayberry. Freshman Shannon O'Hern led the team, with the help of defensive play from Allyson Thomas and defensive play from Kirsten Ois, to a second place finish in the Sea View League.

The girls' soccer teams practiced every day during sixth period until 4:30, for a total of three hours, for three months.

VARSITY SOFTBALL

The year, Newport Harbor's Varsity Softball team was coached by George Spangler, this being his fourth year as Varsity team coach. "Competitive" was the key word in softball this year. Coach Spangler felt that the girls did an outstanding job and they were most definitely competitive. The team was led by winning seniors Lisa Wayne, an all Sea-View league first baseman, and Kelly O'Hara, the outstanding pitcher. Both of these girls gave the Varsity team the extra help it needed to just get an excellent season.

The JV softball team was coached by John Miller. Mr. Miller has been coaching for two years and finds it very exciting. Newport Harbor had a large group of excellent underclassmen on the team this year, two of which were transfer students from Arizona. Nina and Lisa Maciel, twin sisters from Arizona did a great job as catcher and pitcher. The girls had a great year as a result of hard work and dedicated team members.

You're not trying to drown, are you?

Did you hear who drowned last week?

Totally GQ!

No Pain, No Gain!

Yes, there are mermaids left in the world.

Amidst cries of "india" and "slave driver," Girls' Swim coach Doug Mader makes an attempt to start afternoon workout. Two months later, Harbor's girls will meet the best of the Sea View League's swimmers at El Toro High School for the Sea View League Championships. Will the girls be ready? Trying his best, he swims the girls each day for a few hours, in direct competition with reality. Lucky for him, the girls never notice; they just swim on and on and on and on.

Coach Bleiker plans strategy for the big game. 3. Junior Varsity: Hard at work.

The junior varsity tennis team had a great season this year. They remained undefeated until the end of the season. Double partners Jenny Whelan and Carla Santangelo led the team as some outstanding players. Jill Jordan was one of the strongest singles players. The team was excited and energetic this year since many of this year's players returned from previous years. They already had a team feeling and good rapport with the coach, Gary Byrd. They finished the season at an outstanding third, their hardest season ever.

This year's Varsity tennis team consisted of more underclassmen than seniors. There were three senior players: Hillary Niblo, Lisa Wayne, Kathy Grundhoffer, three juniors: Amy McClintock, Diana Lee, and Erin Woodruff, one sophomore: Cory Cook, and four freshmen: Vanessa Bunnell, Samantha Howard, Tracy Rogers, and Leslie Ryan. Coached by Charles Blicke, the team took fourth place in league competition and some surprising upsets were staged by the Newport Players. Evidently, the opportunity of participating in a team sport not only brings physical prowess, but also an intimate friendship with the other players. Lisa Wayne fondly referred to the youngest team members as "typical, screaming, complaining freshmen."

This year's girls' track team had a very successful season. Some of the outstanding athletes were: Maggie Flowers, Buffy Rabbit, Terry Flores, Kaitlin Dungey, Lenay Jones, and Shari Kemper. Led by Coach Bob Vanisher and manager, Heather Flores and Lani Linn, the team showed a great deal of talent.

Girls' Varsity Volleyball had an outstanding season. They were San View League co-champions with Cresta. All this. The highlight of each season was the Cresta/View game. That Newport lost at Cresta. Last in the season, bringing a huge crowd to the Harbor gym, we were defeated 6-0 for the first time in the year. Harbor's team worked it's way to CIF Quarter Finals where they were finally defeated by Menlo Oaks, the CIF Champions.

Volleyball is the most competitive sport. Dedication, training, and teamwork are essential to each member. Besides, Julie Brown, Tracy Miller, and Brenda McGary were the strength of Harbor's young stars. Cresta Mills Harbor with the 2004 Girls' Volleyball Season marked as one of the most successful seasons.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The publication of this book is the result of the efforts, creativity, concern and frustration of a large number of people. This is the time and place to give recognition and heartfelt thanks and appreciation to some of them. To my wife Sharon East-Vanderlan for her input, understanding and encouragement while I wrestled with some of the problems this last year. Many hurrahs and appreciation to Bob, Beverly and Mike Walker for all of their timely suggestions and their help with photography. It would have been very difficult to produce this book without the backing and support of our principal Tom Jacobson. The publisher's representative, Bob Stephenson has been very helpful and supportive of our efforts. The contributions of the photography class are noted and appreciated: David Blackman, Melinda Dalton, Kara Farmer, Teresa Foster, Sam Sofio, Megan Tingler, Scott Grimsgaard, Christopher James, Sherrilyn Kettley, Ellen Prior, Linda Zapata, Steven Abrams, Susan Bradbury, Julie Summers, Jenny Brown, Linda DaSilva, Carla Santangelo, Kate Dudley, Erik Gasner, Sean Smith, Steffani Unvert, Lindsay Alstrom, Lori Knudsen, Jim Day, Will Fisher, and please forgive me if I failed to list you.

Special thanks to Heidi Mason and Daniella Reed for their typing skills and Tracy Flores for her assistance in writing copy and typing.

And to the following people who contributed in some small but important way: Mark D. Harnetiaux, Bob Bielen, Robin Benjamin and Diane Barkdahl.

But mostly thanks to you, the student body, for buying this book of memories. May you appreciate and treasure it in the years to come and at your 25th class reunion take a moment to personally thank the year-book staff for this record of events.

Thank you all

Don Vanderlan, Advisor

Dear Kim -

Hi! I know we haven't had the best of times but that can always change!

I hope I can get to see you this summer especially at the beach go to 40th!

I can't wait we have to go to another concert!

Thompson Twins was a blast I can't believe what happened but oh well!

See ya at all the social stuff (UK) I'll be there.

Love Always -

Marnie

Your a great friend.

Stay that way!

Keep in touch -

Dear Kimberly,

you're such a CUTE little buck-a-roo.

Now that you're putting on the yrs it's not cute anymore it's beautiful. (haha) you are a really nice person and I hope we'll always be friends, it's too bad we're not neighbors anymore. Hope we can keep in touch and all that crap. I can't think of anything else to say.

TELL JENNY HI

LATER.

LOVE

KIMME -

Well it's been great being in Duffy's class you have to admit we got away w/ murder in his class. Raising our phadera (scam). Well it's summer and time to scam. See ya at the beach or parties you will probably hear my laugh. (ha)

Kimie - H Sweetie!! How are ya well we finally made it!! We were it gonna be little Freshmen anymore!! This year was a blast and I hope the next 3 years will be too!! This Summer is gonna be great. We have to get together with Scotty Jimmy John forsure this summer. I wish we were as close to them as we used to be!! I miss that closeness alot!! Just think, we've been friends for 3 years now, and they've all been fun years if you ask me!! I know we've had our differences, but most of the time we've gotten along just great. I'm really glad I met you because you are a really neat person & fun to be around with!! I know we won't see each other over the whole summer because we'll both be going on vacations, but I hope we don't lose our closeness with each other. You have always been there when I needed someone to talk to, and I know you always will be. Nobody will ever be able to replace you or take your place. I'll always love you so don't ever forget that. See ya later.

I love you always,
Jenny

Ah Kimbral,

Sony ya being such a doll to you lately, ^{side} with knowing you! This year, it was great Good Luck on the rest of your
